Leghorne, Auguſt 26.

ON the 22d Inſtant arrived here the Preſton, a Britiſh Man of War, Captain Johnſon Commander, from Conſtantinople, with the Ambaſſadour Mr. Wortley and his Lady; and ſailed the next Day for Toulon, to perform a Quarantine there of a much leſs Number of Days than are uſually required here. This Ship came through the Turkiſh and Venetian Fleets near Cape Matapan, which had engaged a few Days before; in which Engagement the Fleet of the Republick had the better, though they were very much ſhattered in their Rigging and Sails. This Morning the Duke of Dover came hither from Rome.

Vienna, Aug. 31. On the 22d Inſtant the Marquels de St. Thomas, firſt Miniſter of the Court of Turin, arrived here. On the 23d at Night a Courier who had been diſpatched to Naples, with Advice of the Concluſion of the Peace with the Turks, returned hither with the Welcome News that on the Approach of the Britiſh Fleet that of Spain retired from before Meſſina. On the 26th Baron Talman arrived here from Paſſarowitz, with the exchanged Ratification of the Treaty with the Turks. The ſame Day arrived Count Eſterhaſi, Adjutant-General, from Naples, with Letters from the Viceroy of that Kingdom dated the 18th Inſtant, relating, that Sir George Byng with the Britiſh Fleet had intirely defeated that of Spain: Which News was received here with the greateſt Joy. On the 29th Inſtant their Imperial Majeſties arrived here from the Favorita. The Emperour has appointed a Council, Superiour to any others, for reforming all Abuſes relating to the Civil Adminiſtration. This Council conſiſts of a Preſident, who is the Prince of Trautſon, and of Five Counſellours: His Imperial Majeſty reſerves to himſelf the paſſing his final Deciſion upon ſuch Proceedings as they ſhall from Time to Time lay before him. The Troops which are ordered to Italy are in full March. 'Tis adviſed from Paſſarowitz, that M. Fleiſchman was arrived there, and that a Turkiſh Aga was come thither with the Ratification of the Treaty of Commerce between the Two Empires. Prince Eugene of Savoy has of late been pretty much indiſpoſed, but is now well recovered.

Dreſden, Sept. 7. On the 5th Inſtant Count Fleming returned hither from the Interview between the King of Poland and the Electoral Prince at Brin, near Olmutz in Moravia. It is given out here, that as ſoon as the Empreſs is brought to Bed, it will be publickly declared, that the Electoral Prince is to marry the youngeſt of the Archdutcheſſes, the eldeſt being promiſed to the Prince of Bavaria. The laſt Letters from Dantzick confirm the Account we had that ſome Muſcovite Troops were advanced into the Territories of that City, and add that ſeveral of the Czar's Gallies were expected there in a little Time.

Berne, Sept. 7. The Sovereign Council here having been ſeveral times aſſembled about the Affair of the Anabaptiſts, who being baniſhed this Canton ſome Years ago, were come back again contrary
